

3344-12-06 Policies pertaining to college of law clinical professors and legal writing professors.

College of law clinical professors and legal writing professors shall be appointed initially, by the dean of the college of law, with the approval of the provost and the university president, for a period of one academic year with renewal for one-year periods. After the completion of at least five one-year appointments, clinical professors and legal writing professors may be appointed to renewable five-year appointments by the university president, upon recommendation of the provost and the dean of the college of law. Neither the initial appointment, nor any renewals, shall lead to or grant tenure or promotion. The initial appointment and all renewals shall be pursuant to policies contained in paragraph (A) of this rule and procedures adopted by the college of law and approved by the provost.

(A) Procedures for appointment

(1) Initial appointment.

Prior to an initial appointment of a clinical professor or legal writing professor, a special search committee appointed by the dean of the college of law shall convene to recommend candidates to the dean of the college of law, who will make an appointment with the approval of the provost and the university president.

Subsequent yearly appointments

Subsequent yearly appointments of the college of law after consultation with the dean of the college of law and the director (where applicable).

(3) Notice of non-renewal

A notice of nonrenewal of a clinical professor during the initial five-year appointment and in accordance with university policy for non-renewal of unit faculty.

(4) Five-year appointments

(a) A clinical professor or legal writing professor shall apply for an initial five-year appointment.

of the fifth one-year appointments and shall, as a condition of employment beyond the current appointment, apply for a five-year appointment during the fifth yearly appointment. A clinical professor or legal writing professor who is not awarded a five-year appointment or renewal may continue to teach under one additional yearly appointment during which the faculty member shall not be eligible to apply for a five-year appointment.

