Known errors. If you clicked the checkbox, "Remember this password in my keychain" and you're still having authentication issues, you may have entered the wrong password and will need to delete the incorrect password from your keychain. Same applies if you changed your campusnet password recently. (Goto: Applications > Utilities > Keychain Access) Type the printer name, you added in the search field in the upper right corner. Select the printer and hit the delete key. Once the selected password has been deleted, Try adding a new printer and you will be prompted to enter your credentials again.
